

I want all of us to remember that Where there is Love, there is God, where there is God, there is Love. Love just IS. Love is spontaneous flow of selflessness. Love is an energy that fills your being in a way that was never felt before. This Love has no reason, no season, no cause and no end. This Love is the prompter, (تحريك كئنده قلب) the doer, the receiver, the giver. This Love is nothing but THAT, which only exists. The Love that I am talking about is not of emotion, even though when it wants to express itself out of his own grander has no choice but to express in different avenue such as poetry, dance, art, nevertheless the source of this Love is infinite, bottomless, purity itself. When one has the Love for form or without the form, one is swimming in the Ocean of God. In that Ocean, questions are swallowed, the future is swallowed, the path is swallowed. There is only a leaf, a particle of existence that goes freely, abundant, and carelessly to wherever this Ocean takes without thoughts about where am I going, when am I getting there, how am I getting there, who is going to help me.

This Love cherishes, nourishes and is infinite effective. There is nothing greater than the love that I am talking about. Love is the motivator for giving and taking and that is what makes it so potent and so beautiful It has no judgment, it doesn't require any credentials, and it never inquires about where you came from, what your religion is and how much sin you may have committed. When you give all of your heart to one source and all of your thoughts to one source that source becomes responsible for you. You can not however be half-way with the Love ,you must go all the way to accomplish it. So may all of you live in this Love and realize your Oneness with this Love that is nothing but Wisdom and Knowingness: Omnipresent, the only Power.
